Report:

Travelling to Kings Langley in the snow the first major obstacle was traversing the hill up to the match venue. Having achieved this feat, similar to the conquest of Everest, but more difficult, we were confronted by our hosts stating that they only had two ladies!!!!!!!.

The match was effectively over after the opening 2 rubbers with Dave & Oliver and Polly & Gill winning their respective doubles. The winning ways continued with Oliver & Mark securing a comfortable victory 2 games to 0 and the final mens pairing of Dave & Mark also won with a 2-0 score line.

Our single reversal was the mixed pairing of Dave & Gill who suffered their first ever defeat (0-2) which included a marathon first game eventually lost 30-28. All players remarking that it was the first occasion they had participated in a game that had gone to 30 points (maximum under the new scoring system).
